Corporate INTL Ranks Conn Maciel Carey LLP Health & Safety Law Firm of the Year in Washington, DC

Conn Maciel Carey LLP (CMC) is honored to announce that our national OSHA and MSHA Workplace Safety Practice Groups have been recognized as the "2025 Health and Safety Law Firm of the Year in Washington, DC."

The recognition comes from Corporate INTL, a global publication that identifies leading firms and individuals in various legal fields based on excellence and expertise. Winners are chosen after Corporate INTL's research department conducted a rigorous, 12-month review of the potential honorees, including insight from global business leaders, and advisers to choose the 2025 award recipients. This is the second time the attorneys who lead Conn Maciel Carey's OSHA practice have been recognized as Health and Safety Law Firm of the Year by this publication.

This award followed closely on the heels of being recognized by Chambers USA as one of only three national law firms rated "Band 1" Nationwide for Occupational Safety and Health \(OSH\) Law for the third year in a row (every year that Chambers has ranked the OSHA law field). Five of the firm's OSHA- and MSHA-specialist attorneys were also recognized in those rankings. CMC remains the only "boutique" firm among the law firms recognized. Similar to Corporate INTL, Chambers rankings are generated based on independent research and feedback from private companies that utilize OSHA legal services. CMC has been ranked "Band 1" every year Chambers has ranked the OSH Law category.

"It is always gratifying to be recognized for excellence in OSHA law, but what is especially meaningful about Corporate INTL's Health and Safety Law Firm of the year recognition, like the Chambers top rating, is that the decision is based on input from clients and industry leaders that we serve," said Eric Conn, Chair of the firm's national OSHA Workplace Safety Practice.

"We strive every day to earn to earn that kind of support from our clients."
